Our diving school is the most advanced scuba diving center on Koh Chang offering the best facilities for everything, from scuba diving courses to scuba diving equipment to diving retail we have it all. Scuba Zone is your only safety stop scuba diving center on Koh Chang island.

IMPORTANT:

www.scuba-kohchang.com is actually the new Scuba-Evolution.com website, the reason is we had to change the website name as the scuba-evolution.com was hacked ... as a result we do not have access to it anymore. Please do not send any more email regarding scuba diving on Koh Chang from the scuba-evolution.com website as we can not access our mail box too. Please feel free to contact us for any scuba diving inquiries.

Scuba Zone has evolved from Scuba-evolution to become the most reliable, safe and high quality dive center that welcomes all Nationalities. Run by a very experienced team of PADI IDC recreational dive instructors we strive to give you the best learning and diving experiences you will ever have which is why we have customers returning year after year to dive with us.

Here you'll find details of the dive centers (3), diving school, filling station, servicing station, PADI courses, DSAT and TDI Technical diving courses, DIR/GUE diving, dive retail and Koh Chang dive sites.

How did we get here.....

Scuba Zone has been formed by Matthew C. Wilcox, he and his team of extremely experienced instructors/divers who are available to give you the best customer advice and service possible. They are devoted to diving and have loads of experience of diving all over Thailand and many other parts of the world. Now they offer you, experience all of the great things in diving, without having to waste your time and money. Scuba Zone gives you the best diving experiences possible on the beautiful reefs that the Koh Chang National Marine Park and other areas have to offer, from the boat to the diving equipment, A1, safe, comfortable and reliable. Whether you're looking to buy your first snorkel set or you are a dedicated tec diver looking for the next wreck dive, drop by for a cuppa.

Honesty is what all of Matthew's dive centers have been built on and this remains his top priority to give you the best value at the best prices. Matthew is the founder of 4 dive centers,

'Tecevolution' was a 'state of the art' technical dive center that went way beyond most recreational divers limits. He remains advanced in all aspects of diving to be able to provide the very latest information on diving and equipment related issues. Scuba Zone is still looking to the future for new ideas and innovations so diving remains exciting and fun.
